Juror Anne-Marie Kornachuk

Anne-Marie Kornachuk (Canadian born 1969 in Pin Court Quebec) is an internationally renowned realist painter, best known for her paintings of women surrounded by reams of fabric and her full size portraits of horses made to exact scale. Anne-Marie works with oil and traditional painting techniques. She is influenced by the theatricality of Baroque Art.

The animated nature of fabric speaks to her about the hidden drama of the women she paints while the massive size, beauty and expressiveness of her equestrian subjects speak in poetic terms about emotion and experience. She meets every horse she paints to take their measurements and understand their unique personality.

Anne-Marie completed her BFA at Concordia University in Montreal in 1993. Since graduation she has participated in numerous solo and group exhibitions in Canada, The United States and abroad. Most recently in 2017 she was won the Director's Choice Award, International Guild of Realism Winter Salon Exhibition at the Marshall Gallery in Scottsdale, Arizona. She is represent by galleries both in Canada and the U.S.

She lives in Lakefield, Ontario with her husband and is an avid equestrian herself, a dedicated student of dressage and much of her free time is spent training and having fun with her horse.

Acknowledgements

Many thanks to all the artists who submitted their artwork to make this show a success. Artists have come from as far as Burlington, up to Huntsville and Utterson, over to Marmora, Perth and Carlton Place, down to Belleville, Bowmanville, Whitby and many places in between. It truly is a great geographical representation of the artistic talent in our association.

Great appreciation goes out to our juror Anne-Marie Kornachuk for her professional judgment in selecting the show, presenting the awards, and for her insightful comments and feedback to our artists.

Recognition goes to our many volunteering members: my co-committee members Jane Shivrattan and Judy Clark for assisting me and giving me fabulous feedback; Diane Daigle and Jane Shivrattan for doing an amazing job keeping the art take-in organized and moving along; Gord Wilson for helping to sign up our sitters; Sabine Scanlon for her professional judgment and helping me to hang this show; Jane Hall and Mary Garrison for managing the food and drinks area during our opening day; and our President Tim Packer, Newsletter editor Kate Segriff, Treasurer Judi Myers and Website designer Sheila Davis for all of the behind the scenes assistance.

Lastly thanks to all the artists who are gallery sitting as our association representatives. This show would not be possible without you. Finally our gratitude to the Kawartha Artists Gallery and Studio for their support in hosting our show.

East Central Ontario Art Association ECOAA

The East Central Ontario Art Association, ECOAA, was formed in 1960. It brings together a large and closely-knit group of Ontario artists to paint, develop skills and display their artwork with others of similar interest. The success of ECOAA has been proven over and over in terms of instruction, personal and professional growth, satisfaction and the many lasting friendships that have been forged.

The ECOAA organizes several popular weekend painting trips in picturesque areas throughout the year, complete with studio space, a demonstration and optional critique. Members also hold one day paint-outs near their homes open to all members. Every September ECOAA combines with the Central Ontario Art Association for a weekend at Geneva Park on Lake Couchiching, near Orillia. Here, professional instructors are available for workshops and the social activities and entertainment are legendary.

The ECOAA also mounts two major exhibitions with awards presentations annually. The Mystery of the Park is held each October at the Algonquin Park Visitor Centre. The Annual Juried Show moves to various venues around east-central Ontario. This year we are very fortunate to be exhibiting at the Kawartha Artists Gallery and Studio in Peterborough, Ontario.

If you are interested in becoming part of our community of artists, finding out more about ECOAA and becoming a member please contact our Membership Chair, Leigh Thompson at membershipecoaa@gmail.com or Tim Packer 905-725-5435.
